Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Instructions

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-8155.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I-9 Be Used?

All employees (citizens and noncitizens) hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I-9.

Filling Out Form I-9

Section 1, Employee

This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification

The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer

For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I-9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

1. Document title;
2. Issuing authority;
3. Document number;
4. Expiration date, if any; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying Form I-9. Employers must reverify employment authorization of their employees on or before the work authorization expiration date recorded in Section 1 (if any). Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

- A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.
- B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.
- C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B; and:
 1. Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);
 2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C; and
 3. Complete the signature block.

Note that for reverification purposes, employers have the option of completing a new Form I-9 instead of completing Section 3.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no associated filing fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below.

Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

North Carolina Department of Revenue

PURPOSE. Complete Form NC-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct amount of State income tax from your pay. EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING. Read line 6 of the certificate below to see if you can claim exempt status. If exempt, only complete the certificate; but do not complete lines 4 and 5. No State income tax will be withheld from your pay.

BASIC INSTRUCTIONS. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet. An additional worksheet is provided on page 2 for employees to adjust their withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, adjustments to income, or tax credits. The worksheets will help you figure the number of withholding allowances you are entitled to claim. However, you may claim fewer allowances if you wish to increase the tax withheld during the year. If your withholding allowances decrease, you must file a new NC-4 with your employer within 10 days after the change occurs except that a new NC-4 is not required until the next year in the following cases:

1. When a dependent dies during the year.
2. When an individual ceases to be a dependent during the year and the support furnished will be the chief support for the year.

3. When an individual ceases to be head of household after maintaining the household for the major portion of the year.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD. Generally you may claim head of household status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Note: "Head of Household" for State tax purposes is the same as for federal tax purposes.

QUALIFYING WIDOW(ER). You may claim qualifying widow(er) status only if your spouse died in either of the two preceding tax years and you meet the following requirements:

1. Your home is maintained as the main household of a child or stepchild for whom you can claim an exemption; and
2. You were entitled to file a joint return with your spouse in the year of your spouse's death.

Note: "Qualifying Widow(er)" for State tax purposes is the same as for federal tax purposes. Because the standard deduction used in the tax tables for married and qualifying widow(er) is $3,000 and you are entitled to a standard deduction of $6,000, you may elect to claim an additional personal withholding allowance on line C below to avoid having too much tax withheld.

MARRIED AND SPOUSE DOES NOT WORK OR HAS WAGE INCOME OF LESS THAN $3,500. The withholding tax tables are based on both spouses earning wages during the year. If your spouse does not work or will earn wages of less than $3,500 during the year, you may elect to complete line B below to avoid having too much tax withheld.

TWO JOBS. If you have more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using only one form NC-4. This total should be divided among all jobs. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the NC-4 filed for the higher paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the other.

NONWAGE INCOME. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, you should consider making estimated tax payments using Form NC-40.

Personal Allowances Worksheet

- A. Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent A. _____
- IN ADDITION TO A. ABOVE:
- B. Enter "1" if you are married and you expect your spouse's wages to be from $1,000 to $3,500.

- C. Enter "1" if you are a qualifying widow(er). C. _____
- D. Enter the number of dependents (other than your spouse or yourself) whom you will claim on your tax return D. _____
- E. If you plan to itemize, claim adjustments to income, or have allowable tax credits and want to reduce your withholding, complete the Deductions, Adjustments, and Tax Credits Worksheet on page 2 and enter number from line 14 E. _____

It is the responsibility of each and every associate of Saver Tarheel LLC to do their part to help protect the assets of the Company. These assets include, but are not limited to, the Company's money, merchandise, property, and most importantly, the associates themselves.

Unfortunately, you may sometimes encounter other employees (including your Store Manager or Assistant Manager) and/or customers engaging in dishonest activities within your store. These employees and/or customers may attempt to convince you to become involved in these dishonest and illegal activities.

We take these incidents very seriously and reserve the right to prosecute any associate or customer that violates our Loss Prevention policies.

Below is a summary of some of the policies and procedures that are utilized by the Company to protect our assets and our associates. This is not an exhaustive list of what is done by the Company to protect its assets and prevent theft.

Please take the time to read these policies and procedures, and initial by each of them, indicating that you have read and are aware of them.

You will also receive a packet today that will explain a number of these items in more detail.

1. ____ All register Transactions such as refunds, voids, order cancels, etc. are monitored by the system, which produces the Cashier Performance Report in your store and at our corporate office. Unusual register activity will be noticed quickly by your Store Manager and your Operational Supervisor.
2. ____ The Store Manager or Assistant Manager must approve all refund transactions. Many of these refund transactions will be verified through phone calls to the customer.

4. ____ Associates are not allowed to have a cell phone when working at the register. Cell phones should be kept in the associate's locker or in their vehicle.
5. ____ Many locations have camera systems installed, both covert and overt, to view associate and customer activity. These systems are designed to provide a safe work environment and serve as a deterrent to internal and external theft. The Assistant & Store Manager, Operations Supervisor, as well as other supervisors will review these videos on a regular basis.
6. ____ The Company employs "Plain Clothes Surveillance Teams" and Mystery Shoppers that assist in monitoring activity in stores based on associate or customer feedback. These "teams" will monitor opening activity, closing activity, basic operations, and make purchases to ensure Company policies and procedures are being followed.

Form W-4 (2012)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2012 expires February 18, 2013. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2012. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on www.irs.gov for information about Form W-4, at www.irs.gov/w4. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Procedures for Obtaining a Youth Employment Certificate

1. Download and print a blank Youth Employment Certificate (work permit) from the following internet sites:

<http://www.nclabor.com/wh/yec.pdf>

<http://www.nclabor.com/wh/yec.doc>

Computer access may be available at the potential employer, schools, public libraries or at home. As a last resort, you may call the Wage and Hour Bureau at either 919-807-2796 (Raleigh) or toll-free (NC only) 1-800-NC-LABOR (1-800-625-2267) to get a blank copy.

2. The youth should complete the top sections from “Name” down through “Zip Code”.
3. The employer should complete the remaining sections from “Job Description” down through “Area Code and Phone Number” and sign the form. Note: Employer must appropriately mark the “ABC ON-PREMISES PERMIT?” section.
4. Obtain the signature of a parent, guardian, custodian, or person standing in place of a parent as defined in 29 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR) 570.126. Note: This signature is not required for a youth who has been issued a final decree of emancipation by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to Chapter 7B, Article 35 of the N.C. General Statutes.
5. Take the completed certificate along with a “proof of age” document (birth certificate, driver’s license, learner’s permit, state-issued ID, passport, etc.) to the local Department of Social Services (DSS) office or location of an approved designee. Once the information has been verified, the youth will be asked to sign the form in the presence of the issuing officer. Web site to get all county DSS offices: <http://www.dhhs.state.nc.us/dss/local/>
6. Provide a copy of the “issued” certificate to your employer on or before the first day of work. The employer is required to maintain this certificate on file.

If you have questions about this form or youth employment restrictions, please contact the Wage and Hour Bureau at (919) 807-2796 (Raleigh) or toll-free (NC only) 1-800-NC-LABOR (1-800-625-2267). Our Call-Center is open from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday thru Friday.

NOTE: Governmental (Public), Agricultural, and Domestic employers are not required to obtain state youth employment certificates in order to employ youths under 18 as these employers do not come under any of the state youth employment provisions. Therefore, the North Carolina Department of Labor will not allow the issuance of youth employment certificates for youths under 18 employed by any of these employers. These employers may still be subject to the federal child labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and may have to comply with its age verification requirements. For questions on the federal child labor requirements, contact the United States Department of Labor’s Wage and Hour Division’s national call-center at 1-866-4-USWAGE (toll-free).
